THE OLD ARMADILLO:

Listen a job is a job, we all need to find away to put bread on the table don't we? To make a long story short I'm a telemarketer that's my job and that's what I do.

It's not a job everyone appreciates, but it's a job I enjoy and am proud of.

The other day I called a house and a real nice lady answered the phone, she was really helpful and friendly, she was the type of lady that helps a telemarketer get through a long day. After some pleasantries I asked if Mr. Smith was in, "I'm sorry", she answered "I'm afraid he doesn't live here anymore."

Now that was a real disappointment being that she was a nice lady and all, but I took it all in a stride, "I'm sorry to hear that ma'am. Do you happen to have his new number."

"Sure thing!" The woman cheerfully replied, listing off his new number.

I hung up the phone and quickly called the new number and was surprised to hear a recording.

"Thank you for calling Green Acres Cemetery..."
